

Learn to Play Fiddle with the Top 10 Fiddle Tunes... in Tab Charts

Dear Fiddler,

These tunes were originally listed in The Grassometer as the Top Ten Fiddle/Banjo tunes played at Bluegrass gatherings. They are also found in the Top 20 Tunes published by Fiddler magazine. So you know that they belong in your repertory!

I use them in my teaching. Many new students do not read standard musical notation. But even the youngest students can master the tab charts. Of course, the students do the easiest ones first—Shortnin' Bread, Ida Red. Then, I introduce new technique as we go along—just like Suzuki!

This pdf file began a project to help new fiddlers get started fast and easy, wherever they are. Even if they can't find a fiddle teacher. Now they can with my new instruction video: Learn How to Play Fiddle in One Lesson.

If you like this system of notating tunes, you'll like 43 Fiddle Tunes in Tab. In addition to these top 10, it has many from the Top 20 of the Fiddler magazine survey. There are many of the most popular Irish session tunes, also.

For more information about this crystal clear method for learning fast and easy, see the last page.

Yours truly,

PS. Details of how to use tab charts, bow and finger the violin, and much more, are all on the video.
